

Martin Community College

Small Business Center Seminars January – February 2010

Small Business Basics: A Must for Owning Your Own Business

All seminars in this series are telecast live from the Martin Community College North Carolina Information Highway Room, Bldg. 1, Rm. 10A, on Tuesdays, 6-9 PM
NO CHARGE

This series of seminars presented by new speakers will provide basic information for potential start-ups and existing businesses to gain or enhance knowledge in business planning, management and operations.

Tuesday, January 26 - SCORE

How to Begin a Successful Business

RESCHEDULED

Thursday, March 18 – Mike Collins

Marketing on a Shoestring

Tuesday, February 9 – SCORE

Develop a Business Plan

Tuesday, February 16 – Rural Center

Getting to the Yes: The 5cs of Lending

Tuesday, February 23 – Jess McLamb

Basic Bookkeeping

Certificate of Completion for attending four of the above seminars

For more information about business planning check the SBCN website:
www.sbcn.nc.gov/

Continuing Legal Education for Attorneys: Video Replays

The North Carolina Advocates for Justice is one of the state's leading providers of high quality continuing legal education programs. Each year, they offer 50+ live seminars, 300 video replays around the state, and online Continuing Legal Education (CLE). These seminars are designed by trial lawyers to satisfy the CLE needs of NCAJ members. The following are scheduled at Martin Community College.

Insurance Law 2009

Thursday, January 7, 8 AM – 3:30 PM

Family Law How To's

Thursday, February 4, 8 AM – 3:30 PM

Social Security Practice 2009

Friday, February 5, 8 AM – 3:30 PM

PRE-REGISTRATION IS REQUIRED. Call 792-1521, Ext. 201 or 202. For more detail descriptions check our website: www.martincc.edu/news/default.htm. Free and confidential counseling is also available. Call Georgette Chilton, SBC director, for appointments. Appointments are also available on the Windsor Campus.

To register, please call North Carolina Advocates for Justice - 800-688-1413. Contact Robyn Smith or Veronica McCoy.