MCC News: MCC Celebrates Fall with Student Festival

Students at Martin Community College (MCC) celebrated the start of fall with their annual “Fall Fest” on Tuesday, September 30.

Held on MCC’s main campus in between Buildings 1 and 2, the festival attracted over 100 students despite the overcast skies and slight possibility of rain. Abrams Catering of Tarboro catered the event, serving fried chicken and barbeque along with all the sides and trimmings.

This year’s “Fall Fest” served as a backdrop for the college to officially introduce students to its “Read to Succeed” initiative, a part of the MCC’s overall Quality Enhancement Plan or QEP.

The MCC Student Government Association (SGA) sponsors two student festivals each year – Spring Fling, traditionally held in April, and Fall Fest in late September.

For more information on MCC’s SGA activities, please contact Jim Bussell, SGA advisor, at jbussell@martincc.edu, or 252-792-1521 Ext. 268.

MCC Offers Array of Specialty Courses This Fall

The MCC Division of Continuing Education fall class schedule reveals an endless array of possibilities for those looking to learn a craft or expand their employment options. Classes cover topics ranging from “Welding” to “Gourmet Cooking,” and course fees vary in price from $35 to $60.

For more information, please stop by Building 1 on MCC’s main campus in Williamston to pick up a copy of Fall Semester 2008 Class Schedule or view the Division’s course schedule online at www.martincc.edu. To register for any of these classes, visit the MCC Continuing Education Office, located in Building 2, Room 35, or call 252-792-1521 Ext 248. Their office is open Monday through Thursday 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. and Friday 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.
